

Tom Duval

2008 Inductee

Tom was an All-Conference pitcher at Cuesta College in San Luis Obispo, and joined SMSBL in 1997, 20 years after his college baseball playing days. Tom played for the SMSBL Red Sox the whole time, winning two League Championships. He participated in 8 MSBL World Series Tournaments with the Sacramento Stars and the Calzona Tribe, and was the winning pitcher in two World Series Championship games with each team. Tom enjoyed coaching his 6 sons in Elk Grove Cal Ripken Baseball and Babe Ruth Baseball and continues to coach his youngest son. A dedicated husband and father, Tom is devoting much of his time helping his son, Luke, recover from a serious ailment he sustained while a member of the Pleasant Grove high school varsity team.
