

Val Lewis

2007 Inductee

Val founded the Sacramento Men's Senior Baseball League in 1984. Since that time he has played every season and attended every National MSBL World Series, and currently has 14 National MSBL World Series rings. He is also the founder of the Father-Son Division of the National World Series, and is a member of the National MSBL Hall of Fame. Val played in the first organized Little League® in Sacramento, was the Sacramento. All-City High School batting champion in 1960, and played at UC Berkeley (1961 - 1964).